

IN THE MATTER of the Gambling Act 2003
AND on an application by
CHRISTCHURCH CASINOS
LIMITED for approval of new game mixes

DECISION ON AN APPLICATION BY CHRISTCHURCH CASINOS LIMITED FOR APPROVAL OF NEW GAME MIXES

Introduction

1. Christchurch Casinos Limited (“CCL”) applied to the Commission, under condition 9 of its operator’s licence, for approval to amend the game mix Annex for the Christchurch casino. CCL applied to introduce eight new game mixes with the baccarat tables within these game mixes deploying the Tiger Baccarat wagering option.

Licence condition

2. The relevant licence condition is as follows:

CCL’s operator’s licence

9. The Licence Holder may operate on casino gaming tables the game types and game mixes specified in Annex A attached to this Licence. The Licence Holder shall obtain the prior approval of the Commission for any change to the game types and/or game mixes specified.

CCL’s submissions

3. CCL submitted, in summary, as follows:
 - (a) It wants to add eight new game mixes, CO to CV, to its game mix Annex. It wants to deploy a new wagering option, Tiger Baccarat, on the Midi Baccarat tables in these game mixes. These Midi Baccarat tables will comprise seven boxes, rather than the usual nine boxes.

- (b) The introduction of the proposed game mixes will not result in the number of casino gambling opportunities being higher than its benchmark game mix, game mix A.
- (c) It has mathematically compared the proposed game mixes with its benchmark game mix, game mix A, and concluded that, in the round, the proposed game mixes all offer fewer casino gambling opportunities.
- (d) Although the mathematical calculations are not definitive, they are a strong indicator of the opportunities available under each game mix. The proposed new game mixes and the benchmark game mix are as follows:

Game mix	Player spaces	Overall opportunities
A	718	19214
CO	670	15080
CP	657	14477
CQ	679	15302
CR	679	15638
CS	656	14487
CT	643	13842
CU	685	15307
CV	680	15230

- (e) Tiger Baccarat is a betting variation in the game of Baccarat and works the same as an existing side bet, Lucky 6. The new wagering options will provide interest to the existing game, although it is unlikely that players will play Baccarat simply because this option is available.
- (f) Although Tiger Baccarat will add new wagering options, it will not increase opportunities.

The Secretary's submissions

4. The Secretary submitted that he had no regulatory concerns with CCL's application.

Analysis

Introduction

5. CCL has approval to deploy game mixes A-CN at the Christchurch Casino and sought approval to deploy a number of new game mixes. As the Commission considered CCL's application, it became clear that CCL had made several errors with the information that it put forward for consideration. For example, CCL sought approval for game mixes CT-DB when game mixes CO-CS do not exist. CCL provided no explanation for the omission or for seeking approval of game mixes commencing from CT when, logically, it should have sought approval for game mixes commencing from CO.

6. Further, CCL sought approval of nine new game mixes, with two of the game mixes submitted for consideration being identical.
7. The Commission's Secretariat notified CCL of these and other matters and it accepted that it had made errors. CCL amended its application to seek approval of eight new game mixes, CO-CV.
8. When considering the amended application, the Commission considered rejecting it on the basis of the initial errors, given the onus on operators to submit accurate and reasoned applications. The Commission elected not to do so on this occasion because the substance of the application (which is addressed below), once amended, was straightforward and raised no issues of regulatory concern.
9. This decision, however, provides the Commission with an opportunity to remind casino operators of their obligation to ensure accuracy when making applications to amend licence conditions.
10. The Commission may reject future applications that are not properly or accurately formulated.

Application

11. CCL has approval to deploy game mixes A-CN at the Christchurch Casino, and sought approval to deploy eight new game mixes, CO-CV.
12. The Commission's general approach to approving new game mixes is to compare what is proposed with what is currently permitted, and to form a view, in the round, whether they will increase opportunities for casino gambling. The Commission does not calculate opportunities based upon a formula, or tables of theoretical calculations but makes an assessment in the round, on a common-sense comparative basis.
13. The Commission concluded that proposed game mixes CO-CV will not increase opportunities for casino gambling above those already permitted and that the amended application raised no other issues of regulatory concern.

Decision

14. The Commission approved new game mixes CO-CV, under condition 9 of CCL's operator's licence for Christchurch casino. The new Annex is attached.

Right of appeal

15. Pursuant to section 235 of the Act, a person affected by this decision may appeal that decision to the High Court. An appeal must be made within 15 working days of the date of notice of the Commission's decision, or any longer period that the High Court may allow.
