RECITALS

- A. The Settlor is the holder of a casino premises licence (also known as a venue licence) first granted under the Casino Control Act 1990 and currently governed by the Gambling Act 2003 ("the Licence").
- B. It was and continues to be a condition of the Licence that the licence holder establish and financially support an independent charitable trust. In 1997 the Settlor established the Trust and paid $1,000 to the then trustees which they agreed to hold upon the trusts described in the Initial Trust Deed and for the Charitable Purposes.
- C. As a condition of the Licence the Settlor, as the Licence holder, is required to make annual payments to the Trust on terms as set out in the Licence conditions.
- D. The Settlor has power to amend the Initial Trust Deed pursuant to clause 10 of the Initial Trust Deed. Some revisions to the Initial Trust Deed were made in 2013.
- E. As at March 2021, the Settlor is further amending the Trust Deed to provide for the appointment of co-chairpersons and to ensure that the Trust Deed complies with and more clearly reflects the Trusts Act 2019.
